

PFISTER TOLD OF PURCHASE

His Libel Suit Against The Free Press Brings Out Interesting Data Today.

MILWAUKEE MAN ON STAND YET

Explains Facts Relative To His Purchase Of The Milwan- kee Sentinel In 1901--Of State Wide Interest.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 12.—That the suit of Charles F. Pfister, owner of the Milwaukee Sentinel and prominent in the business and commercial world of Milwaukee, against the Free Press for libel is attracting state-wide interest is evidenced by the manner in which every detail of the trial finds its way into print.
On the stand
Mr. Pfister was on the stand yesterday afternoon and again today. At the sessions yesterday it was endeavored to bring out facts relative to his purchase of the Milwaukee Sentinel and also the disputed claim that delegates to the republican state convention in 1896 were bribed to vote against La Follette. To all these questions Mr. Pfister gave a negative reply.
As to the Sentinel
Inquiries concerning the details of the purchase of the Sentinel by Charles Pfister was the chief feature of the continued examination of Mr. Pfister in his libel suit this morning.
Bought in 1901
Mr. Pfister testified that he had been negotiating for the purchase of the Milwaukee Sentinel for some time in 1901, but was unable to obtain it until February 18, 1901, when the stocks of W. A. Hublee, Chas. F. Daley, Fred Lator and others were turned over to him.
A Former Suit
Under examination by his own attorneys, Mr. Pfister testified that on Dec. 27, 1899, the Sentinel had published a retraction or modification of the articles on which his libel suit against the Free Press had been based. This retraction was published at the request of Henry C. Payne.
Myrick in Charge
Editor Myrick of the Free Press was the editor-in-chief of the Sentinel before Mr. Pfister's purchase of that paper and was in charge when Mr. Pfister brought his other libel suit referred to in the direct questioning.

HARRIMAN WILL BE FORCED TO ANSWER ROOSEVELT WILL BE THE NEXT PRESIDENT

Railroad Magnate Will Be Made to Answer Questions Asked by Interstate Commerce Commission.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Nov. 12.—After several postponements the government suit against E. H. Harriman and Otto H. Kahn of Kahn, Loeb & Co. to force them to answer questions put to them by the Interstate Commerce commission, was called for hearing today before Judge Hough in the federal district court.
The questions on which the contest is made involve mainly the purchase of Illinois Central stock by the Union Pacific through Kahn, Loeb & Co. Kahn, representing the well-known firm of bankers and brokers, will be asked to answer this question: "Were any or all of the Union Pacific directors interested in the purchase of Illinois Central stock by the Union Pacific in August, 1902?" The government seeks to show that the directors in effect sold the stock to themselves, netting for the railroad.
Harriman is to be asked concerning his connection with the sensational establishment of Union Pacific stock on a 10 per cent basis in August, 1902, following the announcement of which the stock went up about twenty points. It is alleged that the announcement was held back two days to give those on the "inside" a chance to buy.
Kahn will be asked to tell whether the Illinois Central stock sold by his company to the Union Pacific was not purchased by a poor man for that purpose. Harriman will also be asked what he paid for stock in the 2d, 3d and 4th issues, which he, himself, sold to the Union Pacific. This he positively refused to tell last week and it is supposed he made some little profit by the deal.
The present action is in the form of a subpoena duces tecum, and the two men on the ground that under the law, the Interstate Commerce commission has no power to inquire into these matters and that they are compelled to answer all relevant questions.

Furthermore, there was no warrant in the law for the inscription."

An impressive feature of the convention will be the memorial service in honor of the departed dead. Resolutions will be presented on the death of Mrs. J. Jefferson Thomas of Georgia, Mrs. Newton C. Blanchard of Louisiana, Mrs. Ruth H. Tesson of Oklahoma, and United States Senators Morgan and Pettus of Alabama.

LONDON WELCOMES EMPEROR WILLIAM

Great Celebration Made Over Entrance of Kaiser to City of London.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
London, Nov. 12.—Emperor William of Germany, accompanied by the Prince of Wales, came from Windsor to London today, and it is safe to say that no official head of a friendly nation was ever accorded a more cordial and spontaneous greeting. Both in the matter of decorations and the welcome from the crowd which lined the route taken from the railway station to the Mansion House, where the official welcome took place, the British metropolis did things handsomely. All points of vantage along the route were occupied to their capacity, and while the cheers which greeted the Kaiser as he drove by with the Prince of Wales in the state hansom with two postillions never reached the height of delicious enthusiasm, they were in volume and continuity more than sufficient to impress upon the imperial visitor that he was in a city which wished him well.
The feature of the day was the luncheon given at the Mansion House by the Lord Mayor and the Corporation of the City of London. It is estimated that the luncheon and the decorations cost the Corporation not less than $20,000. A large pavilion was erected in Guildhall Yard, flanked by galleries for the accommodation of privileged spectators. The address of welcome presented to his Imperial Majesty by Lord Mayor Bell was couched in a courtly and low key. The Kaiser wore the traditional uniform of the White Hussars, with a gold helmet surmounted by a silver eagle.

SELECTION OF JURY IN MURDER TRIAL

Trial of Woman for Murder of United States Senator Is Resumed.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—The trial of Mrs. Annie Bradley, charged with the murder of former United States Senator Brown of Utah, was resumed this morning when the selection of the jury was begun. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Turner outlined the crime with which Mrs. Bradley is charged, saying the charge was that of murder in the first degree in shooting "one Arthur Brown." The statement evidently embarrassed the defendant to a considerable degree. She was apparently much relieved when Turner concluded, and the selection of the jury was begun. David Lee, a native of Virginia, was the third man examined and supplied the first stumbling block in the selection of jurors. When asked if he could render a fair and impartial verdict, he replied: "I am from a section of the country that believes in the highest law and an advocate of it. I approve of what was done in the Colquhoun case and believe there are certain circumstances which justify the taking of the law into one's own hands." Lee was peremptorily challenged.
"I just wouldn't vote that way," said Charles Wilcox, a hibernian, a native of Georgia, in such distinct tones as to cause a demonstration in the courtroom, when asked to explain his reluctance against capital punishment of women. He was excused.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Having reached the age of sixty-two years, the limit for active service in the navy, Rear Admiral Asa Walker was placed on the retired list today. Admiral Walker leaves behind him a long record of efficient service. Born in Portsmouth, N. H., in 1845, he entered the Annapolis academy in 1862 and graduated four years later. He was a brilliant scholar and served four times as an instructor in the Naval Academy. He was also included among the naval officers who did such brilliant service under Admiral Dewey at Manila Bay. He served as an instructor in the post-graduate school of the navy at Newport, R. I., from 1899 until 1900, and was on the general naval board during the year 1901. He was later in charge of the "Charleston" navy yard, and his latest post was that of superintendent of the Naval observatory.

LA FOLLETTE TO HAVE THE STATE'S DELEGATION?

This Is The Report That Is Sent Out From Madison This Morning.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Nov. 12.—Senator R. M. La Follette will have the solid delegation of Wisconsin to the national republican convention and Governor James O. Davidson and the entire state of present state officers will be recommended without opposition.
This is the emphatic talk of all brands of politicians at the Wisconsin capital, and so numerous and decided is the talk that there seems excellent basis for the declaration sometimes heard that a deal has been effected by the Davidson and La Follette factions of the republican party in this state. A week ago rumors were current that an understanding has been brought about to the end that La Follette get the presidential nomination votes of the state and that the present state officers be recommended without any necessity of campaign expenses. Now the chorus is that this is just what will happen and the attention evidences that either a deal has been made or else the sentiment has developed so strongly along the line suggested that there was no need of an express understanding among the leaders. The Davidson people are declaring that when the name of La Follette was first mentioned for the republican presidential nomination that the governor at once declared that he was in favor of a Wisconsin man for president and would favor the nomination of La Follette. The La Follette men are saying as earnestly that Governor Davidson has made a good governor and there is no reason why he and the other state officers should not be recommended the usual republican courtesy of a renomination without opposition.

CITY BEAUTIFUL IS THE SLOGANTWILIGHT CLUB LAUNCHES SCHEME TO IMPROVE CITY.

BOULEVARDS AND PARKS

Park and Driving Association to Be Formed—Shippers' Association to Be Organized Here.

Manicured boulevards running up and down either side of the Rock river with a spacious park at the end of the shore drive was the theme in brief of a paper read by Dr. C. G.
Dwight before the Twilight club last evening at its second meeting of the year. The Y. M. C. A. building.

That Janesville may have a system of boulevards and beautiful parks to enhance its already enviable picture scenery was the sense of the club's meeting when a motion was made by Senator J. M. Whitehead and later unanimously passed to have a body of 50 citizens selected for the purpose of forming a Driving and Park association which will start the work along the Thurman plan and persist in its completion.

The first step in this plan was the nomination by M. G. Jeffers at the meeting that if the club wants to take hold of the scheme and work it out, he would donate what land is needed for a park in the city of Janesville. This statement elicited great applause from the gathering for it is the first move toward the realization of the plan.

The progress made by the Madison association known the state over, was frequently referred to by Dr.
Dwight in his paper and was dilated on by other speakers who declared that what Madison has done Janesville can do.

The committee created by the Twilight club is composed of Dr. C. G.
Dwight, John H. Jones, and Mayor Stewart. He has been instructed by the club to draw up a list of 50 citizens to organize the association which will begin the work of beautifying the city.

Man's Beautiful
If Janesville can add to her beauty by improving her streets and parks to equal the attractiveness of the Capital city she can also secure freight rates which will give her merchants and manufacturers an equal advantage with Beloit and Rockford and other nearby cities was another feature of last night's meeting of the Twilight club when a motion was passed to organize a Shippers' association by the appointment of a committee to investigate the advantages of forming such an organization. This step was taken by the paper read by Dr. C. G. Dwight, on "Why It Is in Janesville"

Quell Honored
After the usual dinner had been served to guests the picture of the hundred or more who sat down to the table, John H. Jones, who was leader of the postprandial, called upon H. C. Inell, a member of the club, for a few words inasmuch as he had recently received the high honor of president of the Wisconsin Teachers' association at the meeting of that body in Milwaukee last week. Mr.
Inell responded by saying that the honor conferred on him was a reflection of the high grade of the Janesville schools that are backed up by the heartily support of the citizens at large.

Judge C. L. Fifield, chairman of the program committee, announced that the topic of the club's next meeting would be "Modern Education," and nominated as reader County Superintendent Chas. H. Hemmingsway, who was elected to fill such position.

Improve City
In announcing the subject of the evening, "Things That Would Benefit Janesville," Mr. Jones declared that it should be the effort of every citizen to improve the city to induce strangers to stay here and to entice others to come to the city to locate.
That Janesville has many things to be proud of, he admitted, but he said that there is still room for improvement. The loyalty of the people of Janesville was commended, he said, in the present financial stringency in which the people and merchants have cooperated with the long battle.
J. L. Hostwick, who had the subject, "Should Janesville Have a County Fair" was the first speaker.

The County Fair
He declared that the conditions were favorable to Janesville for an annual fair with the number of nearby cities and rich agricultural country to draw from. Interest in the old county fairs died a natural death and the association was compelled to quit with a debt of $10,000 after two successive fairs during which rainy weather prevailed. But conditions have changed and it is now conceded that a fair would be of great benefit to the city though it would require an expenditure of money and necessitate effort on the part of many. It is up to the businessmen of Janesville to gather up and take on some project.

Mr. Hostwick declared, and with the right man as manager a profit to the city—for money thus spent is the best advertisement for a city.

The Discussion
At the close of his talk Judge Fi-field said that he had understood that pool selling was a source of revenue when fairs were held here formerly, but that a state law had been passed prohibiting the operation of pool selling. He asked if this would impair the success of a fair now. Senator Whitehead, who was called for, said that fairs in other counties are successful today and the prohibition of pool selling did not seem to injure them. Jesse Earle said that the fair held here was the extra charge made for meals and living cost of people coming to the city to attend the fair and criticized such practices.

"Buy It in Janesville" George C. Sutherland, who was on the program for a paper on "Lower Taxation," was unable to be present at the meeting. "Buy It in Janesville" was the subject of a paper read by H. H. Bliss who pointed out the danger of Janesville people buying out of the city which means a loss of a living outlet for the home merchant and a bad example for others who may later follow in the practice thus ruining the local merchant's business.
The folly in dealing with the mail order houses which induce buyers with certain bargains but later make up in the balance of purchases, he declared, is a detriment not only to the buyer but to the local merchant who must make his living by his business. The protection of the home market should be uppermost in the minds of the citizens of a community which exists by means of its own cooperation. Mr.
Bliss also dwelt upon the parcels post law proposed by Postmaster General Meyer, who suggests that a general rate of 12 cents a pound be charged for packages 11 pounds or under in weight and a rate of five cents for the first pound and two cents a pound up to 11 pounds for packages going out on rural routes from the point of origin.

Gibbons' Idea
Following this talk Andrew Gibbons pointed out the advantages of having a Shippers' association here.
Under the three-quarters of a million dollars a year is paid to the railroads entering this point. H. L.
McNamara told of a conversation he had with an official of the New York Central who said that the rate from Chicago to Janesville is an unjust one and should be changed. H. L.
Maxfield told of an experience he had in obtaining rates from Chicago to this city for an iron factory that expected to locate here. Francis Grant gave a similar experience in regard to a shoe manufacturing company that located in Fond du Lac and received as good rates to that point from Chicago and Milwaukee as they could get here. A motion made by E. S. Nolan for the appointment of a committee to see about forming a Shippers' association was passed.
Those named on the committee were H. L. McNamara, Andrew Gibbons and V. P. Richardson.

Dr. Dwight's Idea
Describing the network of roads which lead from the city of Rome that were built centuries ago and the good highways of the European countries, Dr. Dwight took up the subject of "A Janesville Civic Improvement Association." He said: "Ideally has a commercial value especially when applied to a municipality, even when placed on the most solid basis.
Money spent in building good highways is a good investment for the community. In Germany there is a law specifying the kind of architecture a house shall have. Why hasn't a town as good right to compel the style of a house as well as he has to protect against the small emanating from a backyard? The sense of right should be gratified as well as any other of the five senses. There should be a city ordinance regulating the color of trees but it should be enforced with discretion. The organization of park associations in other cities has brought about the beautifying of the streets, lawns, and parks and such a move should not be beyond Janesville."

The speaker then gave a synopsis of the state law under which the Driving and Park association of Madison has carried on its work.

To Good Advantage
He said further: "The money spent by the city of Janesville on roads in the last 20 years would have man-icured the streets of the city, but now the work has to be done over.
The planting of trees and shrubs in the city parks last spring was a step in the right direction. Janesville should provide more parks in the densely populated sections of the city to afford breathing places for the inhabitants who are housed up in buildings which occupy scant lawns." Dr. Dwight then illustrated his scheme of a boulevard and park system for the city by map lantern slides which were thrown upon a canvas as he explained the route which is as follows: start at the Court house park, down St. Lawrence street and the highway and county jail to the river front, follow back of the properties which front on South Main street to Willow Grange addition owned by M. G. Jeffers which could be turned into a park by dredging the creek; follow the river around to the Monterey bridge with a drive to the Chief Kela property which could be converted into a park with a system of lagoons by dredging the river; continue up the west side of the river to South Jackson street, thence to E. A.
Taylor's corner yard which could be converted into a West Side park; from this place the river would be crossed at Court street, going north to North Third street, going north, past the City Community plant to the factory. Goose Island which could be connected with the mainland by a neck of land six rods wide and converted into a park with a system of lagoons; the drive could be continued north along the river or on the present River road.

Gives Ground
M. G. Jeffers declared that he was in favor of such an improvement in the city and that it would add to the actual cash value of Janesville property. He said that a plan similar to the one proposed with a drive up and down the river would probably be the best. In conclusion he said: "If Janesville wants to take hold of the scheme the 10 or 15 acres needed for a park in the Willow Grange addition is yours. The offer was received with enthusiasm."

Compared to Madison Senator Whitehead spoke on the plan as compared with what Madison has done. He moved the appointment of a committee to start the organization of a park and driving association. George S. Parker also spoke in favor of the movement. Louis M. Park, of the Hawatha Water company, was called on and said he first heard of Janesville through the national publicity given the manufacturing industry of the city and the natural beauty of the place. H. C.
Inell spoke on the plan favoring especially the addition of more parks to the city. The Rev. H. C. Bond, who was called on, congratulated the club for its work in declaring blatant on what has often been limited at in the meetings of the club.
He emphasized the feature of the parks which are needed in the city.

Insurance Rates
H. J. Cunningham, who was the last one on the program, spoke on "Local Fire Insurance and Fire Protection," declaring that 100 insurance companies do business in Janesville 70 of which number are American companies. He showed by figures that the insurance companies have not realized any lavish profits out of Janesville business, giving the total receipts and the total disbursements of the protection of the city for the past few years has been ample. He said there have been no big fires, but admonished his listeners that they should guard against the future.
He dwelt upon the report of the fire insurance engineer's report recently made to the city which calls for more fire protection and more paid men in the department.

Judge G. L. Fifield read a letter from Prof. D. M. Mayne, who organized the Twilight club, acknowledging the receipt of a telegram sent him on the night of the first meeting of the club this fall. Prof. Mayne is now located at St. Paul Park, Minn.
The meeting then adjourned.

MANY PEOPLE GOT A DUST BATH MONDAYStreet Sweeper Threw up Great Cloud of Dirt Monday Night Covering Many Persons With Dust.

What equaled any sand storm that ever swept over a desert was the cloud of dust that rose up behind the city street sweeper Monday night as he pulled over the down town streets late in the evening. Pedestrians were absolutely helpless from being covered with dirt and dust when caught on the street behind the sweeper. Women were seen to hurry along the sidewalk with their hands to their faces to keep the dirt from getting in their eyes and noses. Men ran into any places of business that were open to keep from being covered with the awful cloud of sweeping that filled the air. Hundreds of people coming from the performance in the Myers opera house were given a coat of dust while on their way home.
The sidewalk at the side of the Myers hotel was blocked for several minutes by the sweepers who happened along at the time the sweeper was taking up the dirt on Main street in front of the hotel. The sweeper was a greater nuisance that evening because the streets had not been sprinkled that it has been for many weeks.

IMPORTANT SCIENTIFIC DISCOV-ERY.
A Clinical Preparation That Positively Kills the Dandruff Germ.

A most important discovery has been made after a year's patient laboratory work aimed in a certain direction—it is Newbros' Herpicide, a preparation that prevents falling hair, and speedily and permanently eradicates dandruff. These evils are caused by a germ or parasite that burrows into the scalp, throwing up dandruff, as it so to speak the life of the hair at the root.
There's no baldness without falling of thin hair, no thin hair without dandruff, and no dandruff if the germ is destroyed. Newbros' Herpicide is the only preparation that will do the work.
"Destroy the cause, you will remove the effect." So by using Newbros' Her-picide, Newbros' Herpicide for scalp

While He Is Splitting Kindling.

Clinton, Wis., Nov. 11.—F. J.
Lowth, principal of our schools, met with a very painful accident Saturday evening. When splitting kind-ling a piece of wood flew over his right eye, bruising the eye very severely and causing the eyelid to swell greatly. It was, however, a very fortunate blow as the eye is not permanently injured.

labor necessary in raising and getting them to market.

nearly elected treasurer of the M. E.
Missionary society of the Janesville district, at the meeting held in Evansville last week, a position she has held for several years.

POOR TIME TO DICTATE

The American Federation of Labor, now in session, has passed some drastic resolutions, and among them a demand for an eight-hour workday, which shall apply to all classes of labor.

The fact seems to have been overlooked that the labor market is just now overstocked, and that thousands of men have been relieved from service during the past ten days.

The outlook for the immediate future has also failed of recognition, for the action of the federation contemplates employment at good wages for time to come.

The Manufacturers' association, against which the federation has declared war, is an organization of employers.

It so happens that today these men are so handicapped by now and unforeseen conditions, that their business is demoralized, and to such an extent that employment, in liberal measure is no longer possible.

This means enforced idleness, all along the line, and this means that the length of a workday, as well as the wage demanded, will be lost in a demand for work without restriction.

The law of necessity comes to the labor world as well as to the commercial world, and no action of the federation can change it.

The important question is the opportunity to work, and it is a new proposition to the present generation, for work has been so abundant that every man has found it without effort.

Many things will be adjusted, during the next few months, and among them some labor abuses, which have been tolerated in prosperous times, but which will not stand the test of adversity.

BEAUTIFUL JANESVILLE

Dr. C. G. Dwight has proposed an organization whose purpose it is to make Janesville beautiful by means of drives and small parks. Presented to the public last evening at the Twilight Club, it was received with enthusiasm and plans for perfecting his ideas and creating such drives and parks were thoroughly discussed. The idea is one that should be endorsed and supported by every citizen of Janesville. It is not chimerical, but something that can be accomplished with the aid of citizens. Dr. Dwight's plans had been carefully worked out. He drew a picture of delightful drives, charming parks that would enhance the beauty of Janesville and increase the property valuations. His proposed roadways follow the river down into Monterey and then through a winding park, from converted lowlands back upon the other side. He would make Goose Island the headquarters for the boatmen of the city, would have lagoons and graceful bridges and would take the pleasure-seeker up the winding Rock as far as Blawie Springs, through the hills and dales and then cross again to the other side, returning by a beautiful road. Janesville beautiful as described by Dr. Dwight is a possibility. It should be made a probability. The citizens of Janesville should carefully consider the proposition, should thoroughly understand the ideas set forth. That this may be done the Gazette feels it its duty to publish Dr. Dwight's paper, illustrated with the views he presented to the Twilight Club. The project is endorsed by the paper and the organization of a Park and Driving Association is something that would fill a long-felt need in our civic history.

A WATER ROUTE

In discussing the question of railway rates for freight by members of the Twilight Club last evening, the question of a water route to the Mississippi and the great southwest was omitted. Such a scheme is practical. It would not cost a large sum and if the cities along the Rock river would unite in demanding consideration from Sterling to Janesville, placed this direction would be begun. It is a matter worth considering. With the Homoph Canal in operation in Illinois connecting with the Rock, it would not be a matter of much work to deepen the channel of the river from Freeport to Janesville, placed locks about the seven dams that exist and make it possible for river boats to ascend from the Mississippi to their docks in Janesville, bringing the products for use in the Mississippi valley. The question of inland waterways is one that will bear close inspection. The question of opening the Rock river to transportation is something that is of vital interest to all the cities along its banks. It is time now to take steps to interest those in power with the proposition. There is a good opportunity at present to press the claims of the Rock upon congress when the interest in the great Mississippi Valley revival of river trade is fresh.

RESERVES AND CONFIDENCE

"The deposits in the commercial banks and banking institutions of the country aggregate about $10,000,000,000. The total amount of actual money in all of the banking institutions of the country is only about $1,000,000,000. "What is it that supports the $10,000,000,000 of deposits? Is it the $1,000,000,000 of money or is it the $9,000,000,000 of confidence? What happens to the $10,000,000,000 of deposits when confidence disappears? Is the $1,000,000,000 of money sufficient in such a time to support the $10,000,000,000 of deposits? Reverse the proposition, would $5,000,000,000 of confidence be able to support the $10,000,000,000 of deposits if the banks didn't have $1,000,000,000 of money?"

The Wall Street Journal thus discusses the relation of confidence to money. It is the most important factor in commercial life, and never more needed than today.

Just supposing that with this shortage of money the tariff barriers were down and Europe could flood the country with their starvation-wage products. Where would the local manufacturers be?

Dispatches from Madison state that all differences have been patched up and Davidson is going to be reconciled without opposition. Those politicians count nothing on the wish or will of the people in this matter.

The sound of Mississippi river steamers at their docks in Janesville would sound the doom of high and excessive railway rates. Consider this fact.

Janesville is much better off than many of the adjacent cities. The workmen and businessmen realize this fact more plainly day by day.

Bryan invaded Wisconsin and the first thing the chairman of the democratic state central committee did was to resign. Poor old democracy.

Mr. Bryan denies the table of the popular opinion of his candidacy even though printed for his inspection in black and white.

Janesville democrats went to Milwaukee to hear the Peerless One deliver his address.

With all the financial troubles bothering Washington, the Utes out in South Dakota have decided to go on the warpath again. Well, Well, Well.

There is still a question as to whether the North Pole is real or imaginary. It is safe to say that it is real hard to try and find out.

Milwaukee still has Becker for Mayor and a sensational libel trial which does not interest the state at large.

So the news of the nation must pause and the people consider that Anna Held is sick in Philadelphia.

Think of the pleasure those drives proposed by Dr. Dwight would be when actually an accomplished fact?

Secretary Taft is not defeated for the presidential nomination by a long shot.

Difference in Ocean Tides.

It is interesting to note the difference in the tides of the two oceans at the terminal of the Panama canal. The mean level is the same, but on the Atlantic side the tidal oscillation does not exceed two feet, whereas on the Pacific side it is at times as great as 20 feet; ten feet above and ten feet below the mean level.

Renunciation.

"I have always been a good friend to you, Mrs. Jinx," said Mrs. Lapping, with blazing eyes, as she rose to go; "but I am a friend no longer. You have talked about my husband. Right here is where our paths diverge. Good afternoon."

Not Yet Cause for Alarm.

The sun is growing steadily smaller and will eventually shrink to a small globe. It however is only shrinking five miles every 100 years, and as its present diameter is 360,000 miles across present rivers need not become alarmed over this scientific fact.

Life's Sails.

Some day when you go down to the shore of a large body of water, make a little study of the sailing vessels you see. Of course the wind blows in the same direction over every part of the water, but you'll notice that some vessels go one way and some another. This because the sails are set in different ways. Set your life sails—your ideals, purposes, estimates of what is most important to you—in one way, and life's experiences will send you on the rocks of destruction. Set them in a different way, and the same experiences will send you into the harbor of heaven.—Wellspring.

Power of Imagination.

Illustrating the strange power of the imagination, E. F. Benson, author of "Dodo," tells this incident. A doctor he knew had found it necessary to give a patient for many evenings an injection of morphine to enable him to get some sleep. After a while the doctor thought it advisable to stop the morphine, and for two nights his patient was unable to sleep, owing to great pain. On the third night the doctor, being still unwilling to administer morphine, injected plain water instead. The man slept perfectly and awoke in the morning with what is known as a morphine mouth.

Church Built by One Man.

Stitchell, near Coventry, England, possesses a piece of worship unique among English churches. In 1810 John Green, a mason of a strongly religious turn of mind, laid the first stone of the edifice, and seven years later he completed the building. In all that time he had no assistance, doing all the work with his own hands until the church was ready for its interior fittings. The building accommodates a large congregation. The church derives a considerable revenue from the contributions of sightseers who are drawn to the place by curiosity.

COUNTY FATHERS DINE TOMORROW

SCHUMAKER PROBLEM UP

For Consideration This Morning—Report of Asylum Trustees—Committee to Fix Salaries of County Officers.

Assemblyman A. S. Baker of Evansville appeared before the county board late yesterday afternoon and explained some of the provisions of the county road-building law which he fathered. He was in conference this morning with the special committee appointed to make a construction of the highway measures and report on Thursday. A communication from the March 8, offering to supply for rent or purchase next spring a road-roller capable of drawing a grader, was referred to the same committee.

Petitions, Reports, and Bills.
George W. Irish of Clinton is the first person to seek to take advantage of the new law which provides at the discretion of the county board a pension of $100 per annum for males over 21 years of age and females over eighteen who are declared to be blind, and who are not inmates of any charitable, reformatory, or penal institution in the state, who are not receiving aid from the state or any county or city, who have been bona fide residents of the state for ten years and in the county in which such application is made for at least three years preceding the making of the application, and who have incomes of less than $250. He claimed to qualify under all of these requirements and the matter was referred to District Attorney Fisher.

W. J. McIntyre, public administrator, made a report regarding the disposition of certain watches and other personal property belonging to Joseph Richter and Daniel Collins, deceased, to partially meet the expenses of settling up the estates. The report was accepted. A communication from the Sparta state public schools management, stating that the new baby cottage would soon be completed and ready to accommodate homeless infants, was placed on file.

Two bills for the sheriff and court fees and other expenses incident to the commitment in Winnebago and Dane counties of insane patients having a residence in Rock county, together with opinions from Judge Hale that the latter was held for them, were submitted and referred to the proper committee.

Asylum and Poorhouse Report.

Immediately after the opening of the session this morning, Elmer Langworthy and W. J. McIntyre, trustees of the county insane asylum and home for the poor, read the annual reports of the board, superintendent, and physician, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907. The cash earnings of the asylum were $15,909.21 and at the poor house, $701.89; while the cash expended for maintenance of the asylum was $14,023.36 and of the poor house, $5,632.72, leaving a total excess of expenses over earnings amounting to $3,045.58. The sale of farm products netted the asylum $1,826.14; the state aid to the care of patients from other counties, to $4,754.44. The total population of the asylum during the year was 159—56 males and 53 females. Six died, 11 were transferred, 2 escaped and 1 was given a leave of absence, leaving 139 inmates on June 30. The total population of the poorhouse was 139—108 males and 31 females. Sixty were discharged during the year, and 14 died, leaving 65 inmates on June 30. Salaries and wages for asylum employees amounted to $4,508.91 and for the poor house to $1,120. There were produced and consumed on the farm: 22,285 pounds of dressed beef, 3,500 pounds of dressed pork, and milk, butter, eggs, garden vegetables, fruit, and potatoes, of an estimated value of $2,300. Dr. J. P. Penber reported an increased number of inmates, general sickness, and cases of acute illness, without any corresponding increase in the death rate. Of the twenty who died, seven succumbed to the infirmities of old age, 3 to tuberculosis, 2 to pneumonia, 1 to heart disease, and the balance to other maladies. The inventory showed real and personal property on the premises of the value of $180,390.54. The report was referred to Committee No. 14.

Supervisor Woodruff took exception to the failure of the trustees to include itemized statements of salaries and wages and the number of days' board of inmates chargeable to the town or city from which they came. The trustees stated that these details were on file with the county clerk, but this failed to satisfy Mr. Woodruff, who claimed that neither he nor his associates should be expected to go over those vouchers for the information.

W. J. McIntyre, for seven years asylum trustee and for 26 years associated with the county board in one capacity or another, filed his resignation as trustee, expressing his appreciation of the pleasant relations which had always obtained and his regret that his impending departure from the city made this action necessary. The resignation was accepted.

Supr. K. Killam invited the board to take dinner at the county farm immediately after adjournment. Thursday noon, stating that this would not only enable the supervisors to see for themselves the improvements and repairs for which they had recently expended considerable sums of money, but would also be in the nature of a farewell party in honor of Mr. McIntyre. The invitation was accepted with much enthusiasm.

Fred Fryer Wants Help.
Fred Fryer, a blind man who lives with his wife near the institute, in a communication to the board stated that he had been able to take out a subsistence during the summer, but had no visible means of support for the winter. He had seen Poor Commissioner Kenyon several times but the latter had refused to aid him. He asked that the official be instructed to properly protect him. It was thought that the case might come under the new law and the matter was referred to the district attorney. The state board called attention, in a letter to his secretary, that nothing had been done here with regard to its order, given last summer, that beds of the proper width be substituted for hammocks of the Rock county jail. Supervisor Simon Smith said that the previous order was a verbal one and the district attorney had held that the county would be justified in disregarding it.

Schumaker Case Up Again.

A resolution from Supervisor Hopkins, calling for the discharge of the committee appointed to act with regard to George Schumaker, provoked considerable discussion, but eventually carried. Supervisor Woodruff said that he and the postmaster visited Schumaker's home this morning and found the man in awful shape—so bad that it was feared he could no longer be kept there. Supervisor Goetz said that when, some time ago, there was talk of removing Schumaker to the county hospital, Dr. Penber had said that before he would take care of the case he would resign. After the man was taken to his home Poor Commissioner Kenyon had declined to assume further responsibility, on the part of the county, for him. Supervisor Woodruff said that the man could hardly be touched and was ready to fall to pieces. Supervisor W. T. Sherman thought that the man wouldn't live long and that the county had better pay the doctor bills if the family would continue to do the rest.

Soldiers' Relief—Salaries.
The Soldiers' Relief Commission reported disbursements of $3,598 in general relief; $145.79 in special relief; $1,800 received from the appropriation; and a balance of $2,108.72 on hand.

In accordance with a resolution introduced by Supervisor Bear and carried, a committee consisting of Supervisors Bear, Paul, and Smith was appointed to make recommendations regarding the fixing of the salaries of county officers who shall be elected about a year from date.

Afternoon Session.
Poor Commissioner Kenyon this afternoon addressed the board relative to the Fryer and Schumaker matters. He said that he had given Fryer considerable assistance; that the man belonged in Onondaga county and a bill for assistance rendered here had been sent to the officers of that county. A resolution directing the Poor Commissioner to pay Dr. G. C. Wauville's bill for medical services and medicines in the Schumaker case in full and instructing him to make an arrangement with relatives of the sufferer whereby the county should continue to pay for medical services and medicines on condition that the relatives provide for all care and nursing, was offered and passed. Supervisor of Assessments Frank P. Burr was delivering his annual report at three o'clock.

AUTO ENCOUNTER SHATTERED NERVES

Wherefore Henry Moyse Asks $1,000 Damages of Charles Drake et al. In Case to Be Tried Tomorrow.

Testimony and arguments in the case of the Arizona Lumber & Timber Co. vs. Dr. K. Jeffry, et al., will be concluded in circuit court this afternoon and Judge Grinn will instruct the jury tomorrow morning.

Meanwhile another jury is to be drawn today to try the action of Henry Moyse vs. Charles Drake and Charles McCommons. The plaintiff avers that while driving a span of horses near Palmyra, Jefferson county, on June 18, 1906, in company with Walter Pester, an infant, he encountered an automobile manipulated by the defendants; that they disregarded his signals to stop when the horses became frightened; that he was thrown in the ditch and the rig was badly damaged; that his nervous system was so badly shattered that he never again expects to be of much use in driving horses, being harassed by a constant fear of accident; and that the horses were also so badly frightened that they have depreciated in value. Wherefore he asks $1,000 damages. The defendants in their answers claim that if any damage was done it was due to contributory negligence. Atty. Charles E. Williams of Palmyra, and Atty. Tullar & Lockney of Waukesha represent the plaintiff and Nolan, Adams & Reeder are counsel for the defendant.

More Cheerfulness.
There ought to be a state prison for those who destroy the hopefulness and lessen the energy of their fellows; they are human ravens eternally croaking their "Nevermore!" like that dismal fowl whose neck the poet should have wrung at an early stage of his visit. We want a prophet of cheerfulness; a dispenser of sunshine.

Billions of Pins and Buttons.
Twenty billion pins and five billion buttons were produced by American factories in 1905. The United States also produced in that year 200,000,000 needles, nearly 400,000,000 safety pins and 250,000,000 hairpins.

Heat of the Sun.
It is not impossible to express the marvelous power of the sun's heat, but we can admit without shame that it is impossible to comprehend it. The heat emitted by the sun in each second is equal to that which would result from the combustion of eleven quadrillions, six hundred thousand millions of tons of coal burning at the same time.

Before The Footlights

We doubt very much if there is a theatrical attraction in the United States better known than the old English pantomime play of "Humpty Dumpty." It is in reality an illustration of "Old Mother Goose's Fairy Tales," the verses of which have entertained us many times when we were upon our dear old grandparents' knees. "Thoughts of these things carry us back into happy childhood days."

The Saville "Humpty Dumpty" company, which is to appear at the Myers theatre next Saturday afternoon and evening, will give us a chance to witness a vivid and realistic portrayal of this grand old play. More especially so, as they have that greatest of all pantomime clowns, Gen. H. Adams, with them. He is the acknowledged "king of fun-makers," the man who has made millions laugh. They are said to have one of the best entertaining companies on the road, including a fine chorus of handsome girls who can sing and dance and will introduce many song novelties, including the famous "Buster Brown" chorus.

An abundance of special scenery with wonderful electrical effects will make every scene realistic.

If all reports can be relied upon, one of the biggest and most elaborate of this season's melodramatic productions, is the new play, which is being presented by the popular young actor, Le Roy Sumner, which is entitled "Billy, the Kid," by Joseph Santley and Walter Woods, which he is to present at the Myers theatre tonight.

The four acts of the play are laid in New Mexico and show certain interesting phases of border life, but there is also a strong and well sustained love interest and plenty of comedy. The title role will be played by Sumner and a better leading juvenile it would be a difficult matter to find among the actors of the present day. His supporting company is said to be an exceptionally strong one and the production which has been given to the play extremely elaborate.

GRAIN CHECKS TO HELP MOVE CROPS

PLAN ADOPTED BY BANKERS AND DEALERS IN IOWA CITY.

WILL BE USED AS CASH

Banks in Portland, Ore., and Oakland, Cal., Suspend Temporarily—Receiver for Motor Car Company.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 13.—Grain checks will be in circulation throughout the towns and surrounding country and will be accepted as cash by jobbers as well as merchants and small business houses, beginning Thursday morning.

A committee of bankers and grain dealers, in session Tuesday at the Commercial club, completed the arrangements for this scheme for moving the grain. The grain dealer who purchases the grain from a farmer will issue a ticket to him, indicating the number of bushels, the price paid and the face value of the ticket. These tickets will be stamped across the face: "Payable in Sioux City or Minneapolis exchange."

Bankers and grain dealers from Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota towns were present at the meeting. Thirty banks have agreed to support the plan.
